Group Hands Trustees Petition Protesting Edison School Switch

A petition containing some 250 names of parents living in the Westlake Knolls area protesting possible transfer of pupils from Thomas Edison School across the proposed Junipero Serra-Skyline lateral freeway to the new Christopher Columbus School, was presented to trustees of the Jefferson Elementary School District on Monday night.

About 30 or 40 parents whose youngsters attend Thomas Edison School jammed into the board room, and anxiously awaited formal presentation of the petition. The group referred to themselves as the "Committee for Safe Schools."

Lawrence Graubart, 603 Skyline drive, spokesman for the group, read the petition to the board, before handing it over to Dist. Supt. Richard Foster.

Graubart said the protest was for "reasons of safety and distance," urging some kind of "redistricting" to prevent transfer of Edison pupils.

Basically, the group's feelings are that it thinks it would be dangerous for those pupils going to Edison to be transferred to Columbus, less than a mile south, and having to either cross over or cross under the proposed eight-lane lateral, as well as having to walk through "undeveloped" areas to get to the school from their homes.

JESD Approves Educational Program Change

Jefferson Elementary School District has come up with three major changes in its educational program as suggested by Dist. Supt. Richard Foster.

The first change is an exploratory program in foreign language for the seventh grades. It will replace the speech arts program presently in effect. Spanish will be offered.

Foster states that the district feels that this new change will be a step forward in the foreign language program and will help youngsters in making a choice

Sewer Plans For W'borough OK'd By Sewage Dist.

Preliminary plans for a major sewer layout for the first unit of Westborough — formerly Callan Park — were approved Monday by the directors of the North San Mateo County Sanitation District.

The plans showed the layout of the off-site trunk sewer leading from Westborough to the existing North San Mateo County Sanitation District System, which lies about two miles north of the proposed development.

This trunk sewer line is expected to handle approximately 2,500 homes in the development. Public hearing was held on $9 per year sewer service charges for certain parts of Colma and various parcels and property serviced by the district. There were no protests against the service being continued for another year.

A SAND BLASTER exploded in front of the PG&E plant at Market and Atlantic streets in Daly City Monday afternoon, sending shrapnel-like particles hurtling through the air. Above is blaster which malfunctioned; below is visible damage caused to a nearby automobile. Workers of nearby homes were broken, but workers and the National Guard army and offices of J. H. Mohr — owner of the air pressure tank — were sheltered by several large steel crane beams, which were being readied for painting. In photo above is J. H. Mohr painter

Air Pressure Tank Explodes, Damages Nearby Homes, Cars

A mid-afternoon explosion rocked Daly City and Colma Monday afternoon and left broken windows and punctured cars in its wake.

Serious injury or death to either workmen or children miraculously was averted, however.

The explosion occurred when an air compressor tank blew up at the corner of Atlantic and Market streets across from the Pacific Gas and Electric Company plant and Colma Elementary School Monday at 2 p.m.

Four fire engines — two each from Daly City and Colma — responded within minutes to extinguish a small fire and wash down gasoline at the Atlantic-Market intersection.

Workers of the J. H. Mohr sand blasting and painting company were sand blasting behind several large steel crane beams, which protected them, the California Army National Guard armory and offices of the J. H. Mohr company.

A large bay window in the home of Mrs. Donald Camp, 418 Chester street, 500 yards from the blast, smashed by the concussion, drapes were ripped by the broken glass, and a clock and dishes were broken.

Windows also were broken in the homes of Mrs. Betty Hess, 27 Royce way, and Mrs. Jack Cayssals, 51 Royce way, both approximately 200 yards from the blast.

Flying rivets, and portions of an air tank flew in varying directions, damaging two automobiles parked on Market street. Owners of the vehicles are Tod Hedney, 370 Valencia drive, South San Francisco, and Joseph Gillory, 251 Peoria street.

Daly City Fire Department Inspector R. W. Alexander, 207 Willets street, Daly City, blamed cause of the explosion on a faulty release or safety valve on the side of the air compressor tank.

"The release valve is set at a certain pressure to turn off the engine, thus halting the pressure increase," Alexander affirmed.

"Either the valve was set too high or the valve itself didn't release," Alexander estimated.

The two-and-a-half foot pressure tank, six feet in height, exploded, and rivets which held it in place were shot through the air at great speeds.

"I assume the air compressor was not properly maintained," Alexander continued, "however I don't think this can be called neglect."

"An owner relies on his workmen's knowledge of operation to care for equipment," Alexander affirmed, "and therefore I would term it an accident."

The DC Fire Inspector affirmed, "It was very lucky someone wasn't seriously injured, either working men or children in the area, and that the PG&E inserters were not damaged... we would really have been in trouble then."

Estimated damage to the compressor has not been determined, although it received extensive damage. Both automobiles received relatively little damage.

DC POLICE ARREST DEAD GIRL'S BOYFRIEND ON "DOPE" CHARGE

2 DC Brothers Involved In Anti-Jew Case

Barry and Steven Van Otten of Daly City, along with six of the other seven San Francisco youths involved in the 15-month reign of terror to a Sunset District Jewish couple, were arraigned Wednesday morning in San Francisco Superior Court before Judge Harry J. Neubarth.

Judge Neubarth immediately continued the case until Friday, July 28 at 9:30 p.m., at which time eight of the nine youths will enter pleas. One of the youths, Brent Cohn of San Francisco, who was not arraigned Wednesday with the others, will on that date be arraigned and a date for his plea will be set then.

Three juveniles are reportedly also involved, and their cases are being handled by the Juvenile Court.

Barry, 19, and Steven, 21, shared an apartment at 6171 Mission street. They are the sons of Police Officer Jack Van Otten.

According to Superior Court officials, the Van Ottens were represented in court by John Robert John Knutson, 31, chief suspect in the Fairfax bathtub death mystery, is in custody today at the San Mateo County Sheriff's office.

Daly City's Police Department apprehended Knutson early Monday morning at the Say When Club, 6196 Mission street, and subsequently arrested the bass violinist on a charge of possession of narcotics.

Playing its role in the developing mystery death of a 22-year-old Marin County divorcee, the DC Police responded to a 1:30 a.m. communique from the Fairfax Police Department to hold Knutson for questioning in the death of Mrs. Joan Chestnut Zerbe.

Officers William Schumacher, 610 Highgate avenue, Sergeant Ricco Benedetti, 98 Vale avenue, and Dennis Sheehy of San Francisco went to the Say When Club Monday morning about 1:45 o'clock.

According to Officer Schumacher, Knutson was playing bass violin accompaniment for Dick Contino when they arrived. Knutson agreed to go to the Daly City station for the interview with Fairfax police.

By 2:15 a.m. the Fairfax PD representatives arrived, and during the interview Knutson admitted he had smoked marijuana on several occasions but refused inspection of his Mill

Wilson Schl. Site Faces Expansion, JESD Board Told

Woodrow Wilson School is short seven classrooms, and has all the "growing pains" for possible expansion.

This is what Dist. Supt. Richard Foster told trustees of the Jefferson Elementary School District Monday night.

He informally presented three different plans as to how adjacent land to the school might be purchased for additional building. The present Wilson School site has reached its peak in growth, and it is but a matter of time when additional land to increase the site must be obtained.

The plans ranged in cost from $75,500 to more than $300,000. He asked that the board take no action on the matter now, but keep the matter of necessary expansion in mind for the next time the board makes an inspection of the site, which is expected soon. No definite date has been set.

Foster also presented three possible floor plans for the Area No. 3 School, which is to be located in the vicinity of Market street and the entrance to the Crocker Estates.

The district has filed a cer-

Much Capital Outlay; Hiked Tax Rate Allows For Raises In Salaries

Medical-Dental Building Opens In Skyline Plaza

Westlake has a new Medical Dental Building, constructed especially for the convenience of those residents served by Skyline Plaza Shopping Center.

The new two story Skyline Plaza Medical Dental Building, which is not yet entirely completed, saw the opening of offices of its first four tenants this week. They include: Dr. Monroe E. Alenick, Internal Medicine; Dr. Robert N. Brodsky, Internal Medicine; Dr. Catherine Jarchow, Pediatrics and Dr. David C. Young, General Practice.

Skyline Plaza Medical Dental Building is situated on the southeast corner of the Plaza, just off Southgate. It is built around a central courtyard, which will be landscaped, and is of modern architectural design. The doctors who are presently situated in the building are all located on the main floor, an added convenience to their patients.

Additional physicians and dentists will be moving into the structure as rapidly as the remaining suites can be completed.

A $2,802,911 budget for the 1961-62 year—the highest in the city's history—was adopted unanimously by the City Council Monday night, retroactive to July 1.

The new budget figure is $574,571 or approximately 21 per cent over the 1960-61 budget which called for expenditures of $2,228,340.

Along with the budget, a three-cent increase in the tax rate from $1.45 per $100 to $1.48 per $100 of assessed valuation was approved.

The increase of three cents over last year's tax rate carries with it a 2½ per cent overall raise in salaries for all employees, an increase of four per cent in the Police Department, one for Recreation Department, one planning technician, and an assistant finance director.

All three measures—the new budget, the new tax rate, and a schedule of salary raises due to the overall salary increase were adopted by the City Council by resolutions.

The major factor for the increase in this year's budget is due to the capital outlay program planned, the largest ever instituted in the city during a fiscal year since its incorporation.

The capital outlay program, which amounts to $554,917, includes improvements in the water, street, and recreation departments. It also allows for the purchase of five new vehicles for the police Department,

Ordinance Amendments Would Give SSF Council Subdivision Controls

City Planning Consultant William E. Spangle, Jr., after considerable study, has presented proposed amendments to the South San Francisco Zoning Ordinance.

Following several hearings, in which the Callan Park project was intimately, the amendments were shelved for future consideration.

The new amendments would have given South San Francisco's elected body, the City Council, extensive new authority over large-scale, subdivision-type developments — both residential and commercial-industrial.

Vital in the final analysis in the proposed amendments is a list of required findings which the Planning Commission would determine:

- 1) That the proposed development will "constitute an environment of sustained desirability and stability" and be in harmony with the surrounding area;
- 2) That public facilities — schools, parks, fire houses — are adequate to serve the anticipated population and "are acceptable to the public authorities having jurisdiction;"
- 3) That streets and thoroughfares are logically located and adequate to carry expected traffic;
- 4) That proposed commercial facilities are actually needed by the community; and
- 5) That any industrial development is "susceptible to control to prevent any material adverse effects on property or persons in the vicinity."

Order of Presentations

An order of presentation and approval is outlined in the amendments commencing from the initial application to build. Accompanying the application for a building permit must be an initial General Development Plan, showing topography of land, proposed grading, proposed uses of land, location of thoroughfares and streets, and, for residential uses, the approximate location of different population densities in dwelling units.

At the same time, a General Development Schedule is asked, indicating timing for development of each section, approximate area of each section, land area use per each section, sites proposed for public uses, appropriate standards, number of dwellings, population anticipated in each section, amount and type of recreation proposed, and amount of commercial or industrial buildings with detailed descriptions, standards and specifications (sewage, odors, radiation, smoke, etc.).

Proponents of the development must submit within one year a specific sectional unit plan for the first unit development.

Additionally, the new amendments spell out specific requirements for both residential and commercial-industrial developments.

Ensure 'General Welfare'

In order to receive a use permit, the development must have a minimum of 60 acres to permit a complete range of community services—shopping facilities, off-street parking, playgrounds, school and other community facilities—and business or industry must satisfy area-wide needs or local employment opportunities.

"Planned Unit Developments," the amendments stipulate, "are permitted in order to allow diversification in use and in relationships of various buildings, structures, and open spaces in planned building groups and variations in the allowable heights of buildings and structures, while insuring substantial compliance with Dis-

Daly City Garden Club Will Sponsor 3 Events For Golden Jubilee Week

The Daly City Garden Club will sponsor three events—a home garden contest, a flower show and an outdoor commercial garden exhibit—in connection with the Golden Anniversary Celebration.

The home garden contest, open to residents of Daly City, Colma and Broadmoor, will begin August 1 and will continue through October 1. Awards will be presented during the Daly City Golden Jubilee week, October 7-14.

September 10 and 11 have been set as the dates for the public to view the club's Eight Annual Flower Show which will be staged at the War Memorial Community Center.

The nurserymen's and professional gardeners' outdoor garden exhibit will be set up at the Westlake Plaza and will be open during the eight-day run of the Golden Anniversary Celebration.

A. L. Lemos of 187 Wilshire drive and August Conci of the Daly City public works department, co-chairmen of the garden club activities, said each event will accent the Golden Anniversary theme, "A century of progress in half the time."

Lemos explained that the only requirements for home garden contestants is that they have a garden area with more than 1100 square feet and that each entry blank be accompanied by a jumbo size, colored photograph of the garden area.

Entry blanks will be available after the first of the month at all local nurseries and garden shops, he said.

In the September flower show, there will be exhibits in indoor and outdoor potted plants, cut flowers, hybrid roses, fruits and vegetables.

of elective at the eighth grade, as to whether or not they would like to continue in the foreign language program.

Foster also recommended the introduction of the Scott Foresman Arithmetic Series for the third grade, beginning next year.

Another change approved is testing at the first grade level to provide additional information on the readiness of youngsters to proceed in an organized reading program.

Also approved was the administering of the reading and arithmetic section of the California Achievement Series at the third grade level.

Foster stated that through the introduction of testing at the primary level, it is hoped that the schools will have another source of information on the potentials of the youngsters and the relationship of their achievement to their potential, giving additional assurance to the teachers on the progress that is being made with each youngster in the learning program.

trict Regulations and other provisions of this Ordinance.... Specifically, the city is required to inspect scale architectural drawings to ensure the "intent of the ordinance" in regard to public health, safety, and general welfare.

Based on these and other requirements the city assumes a leading control in the development of large-scale subdivisions and industrial or commercial developments.

With this ordinance a city can accept or reject any builder's plans to construct communities in the city, and can evolve any particular city "motif" desired.

At the same time, "The developer would however be freed of the detailed regulations of the (present) zoning ordinance which were designed for application to development on individual lots in separate ownership."

PEDESTRIANS KILLED AND INJURED

More than 5,000 pedestrians were killed and more than 165,000 were injured while crossing streets in the United States during 1960, reports the National Automobile Club.

Fahey, a San Francisco attorney.

Arraigned along with the Van Ottens were John Douglas Rice, Gerald J. Kilroy, Alfred P. Mondello, Jr., Gordon Deane, Robert Russell Ennes, and Richard Henderson, all of San Francisco.

The Van Ottens and five of the other six youths involved gave themselves up to San Francisco authorities Thursday, July 13, and another youth was picked up later from his National Guard Camp. The youths were released from city prison last week on $1,050 bail each.

Until recently, Barry has been working as a Daly City street cleaner, and Steven as a truck loader for a dairy.

The eight youths are charged with conspiracy to commit arson, malicious mischief and lewd police calls.

If convicted, the youths could receive a fine, conviction, a term in the county jail or from one to three years in a State prison.

All eight told police they were not anti-Jewish, and that harassing Mr. and Mrs. William Bowman, residents of the Sunset District, became "the thing to do" which grew out of a party at the home of one of the youths, Gordon Deane, 19.

It was learned by San Francisco police that at the party, someone suggested a "nuisance" call to the Bowmans. Bowman became so upset, the youths said, that it became a "great gag."

Grand jury indictments against the youths were returned Thursday before Superior Judge Herman A. van der Zee, in which three of the youths were charged with being the ring leaders in the vandalism and harassment.

The youths are accused of painting the word "Eichmann" on the wall of Bowman's home; setting Bowman's car afire, and making anti-Semitic phone calls.

State highway-user taxes collected in the United States in 1960 totaled $5.3 billion, reports the National Automobile Club.

Sea Cliff Is Locale Of Lioness' Dinner

tificate of necessity for a 10-acre site, and negotiations for purchase of a site are under way. The board directed Foster and the architect to go ahead with preliminary plans on the school.

Foster reported that the Allocations Board had approved over $600,000 for the purchase of Franklin D. Roosevelt School and also for the planning.

In other actions the board: Approved bids amounting to $5,083.62 from numerous vendors for furnishing and equipping the Educational Center.

Approved a bid submitted by K. T. K. Wrecking Co. to raze a house the district owns at 372 Santa Barbara street for $550.

Approved a bid by Neville Ford Co. for a station wagon. Bid was at $2,247.60.

Approved a bid by Clarke Floor Machine Co. for a sweeper at $3,556.80.

Awarded a bid for extension of the sidewalk at Benjamin Franklin to K. C. Martin Co. of San Bruno for $1,856.

Decided not to award a bid for a car for the district until more information was obtained.

Awarded entering into transportation agreements for the 1961-62 year with Greyhound Bus Lines at $22.50 a day, and with the Jefferson Union High School District in the event one district has the loan of the other district's buses, with each district reimbursing the other at 50 cents a mile.

Accepted the resignation of Mrs. Marcia Backer, a teacher at Benjamin Franklin School.

Discussed several education bills passed recently by the State Legislature, and awaiting the signature of Gov. Edmund Brown.

Designated trustees Wayne Douglas, Dr. Donald Calvert, and Joe Lewkowitz to have the responsibility of signing the warrants.

to cut very much from City Manager Edward Frank's proposals in the working budget. He said he thought this was a good indication of a good budget.

Frank noted that even though the budget is higher this year, the city is supplying more services this year, also, along with the planned capital outlay program.

The council has been working on the budget, at numerous study sessions lately, studying it, and making the various cuts it felt necessary.

The final budget is actually considerably lower than the "study" budget originally submitted to the council. The total there was $2,840,000, some $37,000 more. Cuts in the budgets for the various departments shaved the figure down considerably. The council was still able to grant a 2 1/2 per cent overall salary increase. Later financial information on assessed valuation, state funds, and surplus funds, made it possible to reduce Frank's originally proposed tax rate hike.

Frank originally proposed the tax rate be increased from $1.45 to $1.55, but with this additional information, the council felt it could still do what has been planned, and do it ably on a $1.48 per $100 valuation.

Jay Hartman, union representative for the California Peninsula Council Employees 57, Local 919, informed the City Council that the Personnel Board had recommended five per cent salary raise for all employees.

He asked if the council would consider another raise in January if necessary to adjust to a rise in the cost of living.

Mayor Robert St. Clair said the council would at that time if it felt an adjustment was necessary, and if the money was available.

CITY'S VALUE RISES DURING PAST YEAR

Daly City's assessed valuation for the 1961-62 year is $53,844,533, a gain of $4,283,833—or about an 8 percent increase—over the total assessed valuation of $48,678,550 for the 1960-61 year, which concluded just recently.

The rise stems from home construction in the city during the past year.

Although the assessed valuation is higher, the increase between the two fiscal years is not quite as high as in previous years, according to Director of Finance Joe Arch. He implied that this may be due to a leveling off of growth.

The breakdown on the total assessed valuation is thus:

The total assessed valuation on secured taxes, less exemptions (Secured taxes refer to taxes on real estate) for 1961-62 is $50,550,898, up $3,672,348 from the $46,678,550 figure for 1960-61.

Unsecured taxes (personal property) for 1961-62 totals $3,293,635, up $411,535 over the $2,882,100 accredited for 1960-61.

The above figures were revealed to the City Council Monday night by Deputy Tax Collector Evelyn Mosman.

Valley apartment without legal consultation.

Agreeing to a search of his auto, Knutson, Sgt. Grasso and Officer Schumacher drove to the Pacific Super Market parking lot, where the suspect's auto was parked.

A hasty search failed to uncover narcotics inside the car, so Knutson was asked if a search could be made of the automobile's trunk.

He reportedly agreed but then asserted he had lost his key.

In demonstrating the locked trunk, Knutson opened it up about a foot, then slammed it down again, explaining his action as a delayed reaction from the strenuous lift.

Sgt. Grasso helped him open the lid a second time and a brown toilet article bag was found containing four small prescription drug containers which Knutson identified as marijuana.

Pills and powder found in the bottles are being analyzed by the California State Bureau of Narcotics.

At the Daly City Police Station, Lt. Bruno Conci further interrogated Knutson.

The musician murder suspect denied knowledge of how the containers got into the toilet bag, although he admitted using the bag earlier when he shaved for work.

Knutson was remanded to the custody of the San Mateo County Sheriff's Office on narcotics possession charges, and was arraigned Tuesday.

Bail is set at $1,050, and he will appear in court Tuesday for plea.

Following San Mateo County charges for possession of narcotics, Knutson thereafter may face similar charges in Mill Valley.

Disposition in the murder case would await trial on the narcotics charges, although at the present a murder charge has not been made.

Mrs. Zerbe's nude body was found in the bathtub of her Fairfax apartment and evidence indicates either homicide or obscure diseases were the cause of death.

Narcotics were found in the dead woman's apartment by Fairfax police, and further investigation uncovered narcotics in Knutson's apartment, which he lived in rent free from the divorcee's grandmother.

Knutson reportedly visited Mrs. Zerbe in the afternoon and left at 7:30 p.m. for San Francisco to prepare for his performance at the Say When Club.

Mrs. Zerbe's divorced husband, missing without leave from the Western Psychiatric Institute in Pittsburgh, is considered a secondary suspect, as it is believed he is in Arizona.

flower arranging, corsages and table settings.

There also will be competition among junior garden enthusiasts in horticulture and flower arranging.

Conci said the professional gardeners exhibits will be judged on October 7 and will be scored on design, originality, quality and proper use of plant material and neatness of construction.

Each of these gardens will contain approximately 450 square feet and will display the talent that has gained Daly City and San Mateo County national recognition in the floral industry.

taking them way out of the neighborhood area.

Edison School is located at Lincoln drive and Southgate avenue, and serves those families living in the Westlake Knolls area. Abraham Lincoln School is adjacent at Lincoln drive and Southgate avenue, and serves those families living west of Skyline drive. The district has followed a policy of bussing in those youngsters from west of Skyline to Lincoln. Heretofore those youngsters attending Edison either walk to and from school from their nearby homes, or are transported by family car.

Graubart's reasoning is that since those youngsters attending Lincoln are already bussed in, why not just transport them that extra eight-tenths of a mile to Columbus, and that it would work no hardships. It would be easier to transfer Lincoln pupils and the principal and staff that it would make a re-shift of Edison youngsters, he claims.

"Edison is closest to our area, and is more our school," he said.

Foster told this newspaper that the district was not considering transferring the Edison pupils, but was giving considerable study to the possibility of transferring Lincoln's pupils, principal and staff to Columbus.

Actually, the recommendation by the group was in keeping with past thinking of the board, who have been studying the possibility of the transfer since the Highway Commission decided on the Route B proposal for the lateral.

It is because of the proposed freeway lateral, Foster said, that the district is reconsidering reversing schools originally intended for youngsters.

The new Christopher Columbus School was originally planned to serve those youngsters living south of Bellhaven. Edison was built to serve the Westlake Knolls and immediate area; and Lincoln was to serve those youngsters west of Skyline.

If the board did initiate the switch, it would mean that youngsters living south of Abraham Lincoln School, instead of going to Columbus School as originally planned, will go to Lincoln.

Foster, in accepting the petition, told Graubart it was "well in order," and urged the group and the board to work side by side on the matter.

Foster said he intends to meet with the parents of those youngsters living west of Skyline, during August, to discuss the possibility of switching their youngsters to a different school. No date, time or place has been decided as yet, Foster disclosed.

A parent asked Foster if the matter would be solved by the time school starts in September. Foster assured her that it would.

Mayor Rozzi Promotes City Redevelopment Through 'Needs' Survey

Following directions by Mayor Guido Rozzi of South San Francisco, all city departments concerned will report on city needs soon, as they relate to his seven-point city development plan.

These reports or survey of needs under the plan will constitute a major direction for requests from the federal government in an attempt to redevelop near-blighted city areas and promote Civil Defense shelters, Mayor Rozzi said.

The survey will be combined with the Master Plan—part of which are the proposed amendments to the city ordinance—for presentation to the federal government by the first of next year.

William E. Spangle, Jr., city planning counselor, has been hired to do the Master Plan, which is prerequisite for federal aid.

Spangle also has done the San Mateo County Master Plan, and Mayor Rozzi affirms, "We will correlate our Master Plan to work in harmony with neighboring cities—Daly City, Brisbane, and San Bruno.

"We wouldn't want to build an industrial site next to a neighboring city's residential district.

"The proposed amendments to the city zoning ordinance, the Planned Community ordinances, is merely one portion of the Master Plan," Mayor Rozzi explained.

"The older area of our community," Mayor Rozzi stipulated, "may become quite a blighted area if we wait much longer.

"This survey or developing Master Plan would tell us land use for areas within the city. Entire blocks—or units within these larger areas—would then be studied for conversion to their more proper and profitable use.

"For example," the mayor continued, "perhaps near-blighted areas would be turned into parks or maybe high-rise apartments."

Present unsightly alleys in a single block average an acre and a half in square footage. "This area can be converted into a parking lot or greenery," the South City leader affirmed.

"The Master Plan is an entire study of the city, while the proposed amendments—prepared by Spangle and Zon—gives the Planning Commission and City Council control over entire planned units within the city.

"I think the Planned Community amendments have been over-emphasized," Mayor Rozzi concluded.

The Planning Commission, Planning Director, Planning Consultant and Housing Authority will report on their survey of renewal and housing needs to the City Council, and the Master Plan will be completed within the year for presentation with application to federal agencies by the first of next year, the Mayor reported.

SM County Demos Set July 30 For Huge Barbecue

Roasted Republicans will not be the feature on the menu of the Mammoth Old-Fashioned Political Bar-B-Q planned by San Mateo County Democrats for Sunday, July 30, at San Bruno's Crystal Springs City Park. However, there will be barbecued beef, beans, assorted salads and beverages available to all who attend.

Sponsored by the United Democratic Fund of San Mateo County, the Sunday family picnic premises to "offer something for everyone, whether of voting age or not," according to picnic chairman Pat Dailey. Not only will there be door prizes, group games, and an old-fashioned political-wit-and-oratory exhibition, but the high spot of the afternoon at the park premises to be a strictly amateur soft-ball contest between the 25th Assembly District "Tammany Tigers" and the "out-classed, but game-to-the-end Dixie Dodgers" of the South County's 26th Assembly District.

For a one dollar donation, tickets for the day-long picnic, which will run from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. in the evening, with food served at one, are available from all members of the San Mateo County Democratic Central Committee, as well as as local Democratic Club presidents. Additional information is available from Ron Mangan, president of the Daly City-Colma Demo Club, at PL 5-4379.

Pacifica May Get 21-cent Tax Reduction

A 21-cent tax reduction appears to be in store for the City of Pacifica, City Manager Karl Baldwin reported recently.

Reason for the reduction in the proposed 1961-62 budget is due to use of new one-cent sales tax funds, and new returns from sewer connection fees.

Sales tax funds reduced the tax rate 13 cents and the sewer fees made up the balance of the 21-cent reduction.

Last year's city tax was $2.13. This year it is reduced to $1.92.

Use of the sewer fees allow the city to drop the previously proposed eight-cent bond interest and redemption fund.

Baldwin stated the city's assessed valuation of $20,623,482 is one of the lowest in the nation, and even with the reduced tax rate, the new tax rate is one of the highest in the nation.

New apartment and shopping center construction in Pacifica was described by Baldwin as assuring a better fiscal outlook for the years ahead.

The new budget proposes an expenditure of $804,843.

It includes salaries for nine new city employees—a city engineer, two maintenance men for parks and streets, two sewage treatment plant operators to run two new plants, one policeman, one fireman, and a draftsman-computer—a salary adjustment of five per cent to all city employees, and normal city departmental operating costs.

Mark Morris Tire Opens In Daly City

After more than three decades as a downtown automotive service and tire dealer, the Mark Morris Tire Company has opened an additional outlet "to keep pace with the population growth" in the outlying areas of metropolitan San Francisco.

The new Mark Morris store, located at 7201 Mission street in Daly City, begins operations this week, with a grand opening celebration scheduled to commence this Wednesday.

In addition to the U. S. Rubber Company tire line, the new facility will also feature a wheel balancing department, and a complete brake shop which will be geared for both retail and commercial business.

Ray Bonsall, long-time Mark Morris employee, has been named manager of the new store, announced Mark Morris and General Manager Gerard Rhine. Rhine will serve as supervisor for both the new Daly City location and the established home store, located at Geary and Polk in downtown San Francisco.

"The opening of our new Mark Morris outlet in Daly City marks the first service to residents in this area of a name-brand tire store with a complete budget department," explained Rhine.

"The new location will fill the need of families in the Daly City, Westlake and South San Francisco—people who do not or cannot ordinarily bring their cars into downtown San Francisco," Rhine said.

FRANK JAMES, popular quick draw artist and general manager of Frontier Land in Linda Mar, is assisted by Fiesta Dream Girl Judy Ustlad in spoofing typical TV version of shootout between two gun-slingers. In demonstrations at the San Mateo County Fair and Floral Fiesta on Daly City Day, August 12, and each day at the Daly City Golden Anniversary Celebration, October 7-14, he will show why these dramatic interpretations of gunfighting in the Old West are fiction and not fact.

Price Reductions On Gallon Milk Will Become Effective On Sunday

Price reductions of from four to six cents per gallon of milk will become effective at retail stores next Sunday throughout San Francisco and upper peninsula communities under a new order of the California Bureau of Milk Stabilization.

For the first time, San Francisco and Daly City store customers who purchase two or more half-gallon cartons of milk may be given quantity discounts of two cents off the regular 47 cent half-gallon price. This amounts to a six-cent savings over single quart prices of 24 cents which makes possible savings of over one million dollars annually for San Francisco families.

Granting of quantity discounts to San Francisco retail store customers continues a new precedent for California milk price structures. The first such discounts became effective last month in Alameda, Contra Costa and Los Angeles counties in the San Bernardino-Riverside marketing area. Issued by L.C. Schafer, Acting Chief of Bureau, these new orders' price savings for quantity milk purchases of a gallon or more were justified by a series of cost studies made by the Bureau early this year.

Ray B. Bush, Manager of the Milk Department of Safeway Stores, Incorporated, hailed the quantity discount as a welcome saving for large families.

John Casey, Daly City special agent for the Prudential Insurance Co. Ralph Steil agency, is featured in the current edition of Western Round-up, company sales promotion magazine for the 13 western states.

Casey, 424 Westmoor avenue, sold and serviced more than a million dollars worth of insurance last year.

The special agent has received his second annual National Quality Award, it also was announced today.

The award, one of the life insurance profession's highest honors, is sponsored by the National Association of Life Underwriters and the Life Insurance Agency Management Association. It is aimed at encouraging the writing of life insurance programs well adapted to the policyholder's needs and circumstances.

Casey, a former police patrolman, has been with the company for almost five years.

DC Eagles To Sponsor Free Breakfast Sunday

Daly City Eagles Lodge Aerie 1848 will sponsor a free breakfast on Sunday morning beginning at 9 a.m. at the lodge hall at 3344 San Jose avenue.

Members and friends are cordially welcome. Entertainment will also be provided.

W'LAKE MAN GETS BANK VEEP POST

Thomas A. Gallagher, Jr., of 270 Wilshire ave., is one of three men recently promoted to assistant vice president of Crocker-Anglo National Bank's administrative headquarters in San Francisco.

The other two men, Lambert A. Becker and Raymond Blacklock, are of San Francisco.

Gallagher was born in Palo Alto and was graduated from Stanford University and the Stanford University Law School. He had two years of legal experience in San Francisco before becoming associated with Crocker-Anglo in 1953.

He was named assistant counsel in the bank's legal department in 1955. Gallagher, a member of the State Bar Association of San Francisco, San Francisco Bar Association and the Stanford Club of San Francisco, will be assigned on August 1 to the automotive finance administration department at Crocker-Anglo's administrative headquarters.

NEW NURSERY IS SLATED FOR AREA

Plans have been made for a new nursery school in San Francisco for children three to five years old. The school will be located in the Forest Lodge at 266 Laguna Honda blvd., and is scheduled to open September 25.

A child can be enrolled for three morning sessions or three afternoon sessions weekly.

The school is under the co-direction of Mrs. Leona Robinson, and Mrs. Fran Shea.

Mrs. Robinson has had three-and-a-half years of experience as a speech therapist in the Palo Alto Public Schools, and Mrs. Shea is an elementary school teacher with 2½ years experience in the San Francisco Public School District.

Summarizing the present situation, Wells replied, "We've tabled the amendments for the present, and it is hoped when this Callan issue has died out, that the amendments can be presented to the real people of South San Francisco and that they will want it for a brighter future and will be pleased to adopt it."

SSF Leaders Seek Bright Future With Development Studies

By LARRY RUIZ

Two leading San Mateo County citizens have developed programs they hope will pave the way toward a bright new future for the City of South San Francisco.

However, recent disputes and perhaps unfounded suspicion by an apparently small portion of "South City" residents have blocked measures which possibly could lead to that better, brighter age for the North San Mateo County city.

The two accomplishments are: (1) Proposed amendments to the South San Francisco Zoning Ordinance as prepared by Planning Commission Consultant William E. Spangle, Jr., of Menlo Park.

(2) Mayor Guido Rozzi's seven-point program for urban renewal and city redevelopment.

In a speech before the SSF Chamber of Commerce Mayor Rozzi affirmed, "You gentlemen of the Chamber, day in and day out, keep our business and industrial life competitive and successful by meeting the challenge with new ideas, new methods and new plans."

"A city also must re-tool for progress and success."

"A year or so ago South San Francisco started on its way toward modernizing the community by undertaking a Master Plan project... and retaining a consulting planner, William Spangle, to develop a proposed plan," the mayor described.

"The sketch plan is in," Mayor Rozzi continued, "and as Mr. Spangle describes it: 'The sketch plan presents an organized set of ideas regarding the future development of SSF and adjacent areas which bear relation to the planning of the city.'"

"The ideas presented are preliminary and it is hoped that this plan will provide a vehicle for discussion so that the individuals, groups and public officials who are concerned... may be able to discuss the ideas presented and reasonable alternatives."

The proposed amendments to the South San Francisco Zoning Ordinance represents this effort by Spangle. But it was never to be voted upon by the city council.

Table Amendments

Clifford Wells, acting chairman of the Planning Commission when hearings were being held, relates:

"The proposed amendments were rejected by the Planning Commission. They were sent to the council for their information only."

"The Commission just felt the people of South San Francisco weren't ready for it yet," Wells reported.

"We never heard from a majority of the people, and the opposition which was left over from the Callan Park issue was trying to force itself into making an issue of the planned community."

"I couldn't see making this much-needed and extensive study a political football and putting it all over the newspapers."

"This is not an ordinance specifically designed for the Callan Park project. This is a comprehensive study—both for residential and commercial-industrial large-scale construction projects," Wells emphasized.

"It is needed to cope with the certain population growth of the city. It is needed to rebuild our downtown districts."

"And it is needed to give the right flexibility in some cases—and rigidity in other cases—to enable large-scale project builders to develop community-size units efficiently, economically and attractively in the city," Wells said.

Currently, when a corporation desires to build in SSF he must design according to present zoning regulations, which is directed toward single-building structures and not for the more economically and aesthetically sound self-supporting community developments—both residential, commercial-residential, and industrial—which are springing up everywhere along the Peninsula.

Summarizing the present situation, Wells replied, "We've tabled the amendments for the present, and it is hoped when this Callan issue has died out, that the amendments can be presented to the real people of South San Francisco and that they will want it for a brighter future and will be pleased to adopt it."

Pacifica's Success

An example of a Planned Community Zoning Ordinance at work is currently proceeding in Pacifica.

Last week the Pacifica Planning Commission passed the General Plan for the Doelger Corporation's proposed Fairmont Planned Community.

lined by its Planned Community Zoning Ordinance, the Commission accepted variances to lot sizes, frontages, and depths on the basis of "improved design" for economic and recreation advantages.

Lot frontages were reduced from the zoning minimum of 50 feet to 40 feet, required 20-foot front lawns were reduced to 16 feet because of a new concept in vehicle parking, and reductions were allowed below minimum 5000 square foot lots.

What was gained:

1) Reduction in linear street frontage, thus giving the same service for less cost and maintenance.

2) Large open spaces which can be used as recreational or community service projects, and

3) Satisfactory back yard space, which would not have been possible with 20-foot front lawns. This need results from steepness in terrain, which limits the total leveled area or depths of lots in the subdivision.

Doelger Corporation representative Carl Timmons affirms, "The Planned Community Zoning Ordinance is merely a form of control which enables the developer to efficiently derive greatest value from the land."

"This type of project could not have been accomplished under the general city ordinance."

"Under the basic ordinance," Timmons continued, "the community would be hard to service and thus expensive, and would not provide sufficient recreational space."

"As far as living space," Timmons concluded, "houses must be about the same size—at least 1300 square feet—to meet the required three-bedroom, living room, garage space, etc., which is in popular demand."

Karl Baldwin, Pacifica City Manager, responded:

"Fairmont Planned Community is the first and largest project to come under the Planned Community Zoning Ordinance. And it looks as though the new ordinance is accomplishing its objective, which is to allow large corporation builders to exceed the scope or ability of our city to prepare intensive and efficient plans to gain the best use of our land."

Commenting on the approval of the Planning Commission to allow the Doelger Corp. to build below minimum frontages and lot sizes, Baldwin said:

"The nominal minimum has been lowered to allow the builder to provide parkway and public service areas, which most likely will be maintained by the Pacifica Parks, Beach, and Recreation Department."

The Future of SSF

Anita Robertson, Planning Director of South San Francisco, and a disquieted administrator throughout the development and tabling of the proposed amendments to the present zoning ordinance, emphasized the future of South San Francisco.

"Land is fast running out throughout the Peninsula and here in SSF. And the increased population in the next 10 years will bring a land density (population) problem."

"Most of the growth will be here in the North County. The efficient, economic, and attractive aspects of better community-wide building cannot be ignored any longer."

"There is a great need at the present time for better and more economic housing in two categories—young families and old families. The middle aged group is satisfied and undoubtedly will not need housing at lower cost."

"But for these other large groups," Director Robertson continued, "there is a great need for economic and better built homes."

"This can only be accomplished through community-wide planning for more economic living—reduction of say lot sizes and unused spaces (now only wind tunnels) between homes, and use savings either for lower cost housing for same utilities or more utilities for same cost," she summarized.

Essentially the problem surrounds human needs.

Population will greatly increase in the years ahead. Land will become less available. What lands exist and what districts are allowed must be used to the greatest advantage, and this means greater and more effective control.

The proposed amendments to the South San Francisco zoning ordinance, according to Mayor Rozzi, acting Planning Commission Chairman Wells, and Planning Director Robertson, stand at the focal point toward a sane and proud future.

Northern California has mobilized an unprecedented organization of 6000 men and equipment to fight forest fires this year; help them by being careful with fire wherever you are.

Society Notes

Ben Franklin Teachers Near Guatemala Border

Paris B. Simmons, one of four Benjamin Franklin School teachers traveling to Panama City, reports the group's arrival in Oaxaca, Mexico, near the Guatemala border.

Simmons writes: "The journey through Mexico has been filled with education, thrills and adventure. . . .

"We have slept in areas considered very dangerous by the nationals, not that we were extremely brave, but because it was raining so hard we had to seek shelter.

"Our largest handicap has been the language barrier. Often we believe we have communicated only to discover we have not. Carl Hunter gave an order in what he felt was excellent style for a slice of Pineapple in Mexico City. When served he had a Papaya milkshake," Simmons affirmed.

Reporting on the difficult road conditions over which their motorcycle "caravan" traveled, Simmons cited two serious accidents.

"We witnessed tragedy on the rural mountain highway about 125 miles from Oaxaca when a truck loaded with marble had its brakes lock on an incline, narrowly missing our lead vehicle driven by Victor Santa Maria, and turning over, snuffing out the lives of a native woman and child.

"A few miles on we saw a large truck that had run off the road and dropped some 150 yards into a ravine. . . .

"Members of our group witnessed the training of bull fighters, visited with governors and educational leaders, spoke with thousands of Mexican nationals, consuls, and Peons from all walks of life," Simmons continued.

"We have taken over 400 slides of Mexico and many hundreds of feet of film.

"The Mexican Government is releasing a set of texts used in the schools to myself for evaluation and use in compiling strip films of the various phases of Mexican culture and text book writing.

"Over seven hours of recordings have been taped and will be used by Robert Dougherty and Hunter in motion picture coordination.

"A number of projects are nearing completion on the Arts and Crafts of Mexico by Santa Maria," Simmons affirmed.

The Pan-American Study Group expedition to Panama City will continue on to Guatemala City, where the group intends to do intensive research.

Crafts for Juniors and Intermediates will be instructed by Mrs. Frances Allen, Mrs. Clarissa Vinson and Wesley Thomas.

Minister Thomas invites all children of the community to attend denomination, and parents are invited to bring their children to registry Monday, July 24.

Summer Bible School sessions will be conducted from 9 a.m. to noon, Monday through Friday, each week of the school.

Four Subjects Most Popular In SS Season

Four courses above all others seem to be the most popular among youngsters attending summer school sessions at five of the schools, according to Dist. Supt. Richard Foster.

The courses—being given at all five schools (Colma, Thomas Edison, Benjamin Franklin, Garden Village and Woodrow Wilson)—are enrichment courses.

Dist. Supt. Richard Foster gave trustees of the Jefferson Elementary School District Monday night the following facts:

The most popular course is arts and crafts with 711 enrolled; second is elementary astronomy with 455; following by speed reading with 443, and World of Mammals with 355, for a total of 805 pupils enrolled in the enrichment classes.

There are 547 youngsters enrolled in the developmental classes. These classes consist of language arts, arithmetic and reading. In addition, a pupil is allowed to take one of the enrichment courses of the before-mentioned.

Foster reported that as of the end of the first week of summer school, there were 1,367 pupils enrolled as compared to only 945 at the same time last year.

Daly City Man Ends Army Signal Course

Army Pvt. Stuart R. Geddes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Trevor R. Geddes, 129 Glenwood avenue, Daly City, recently completed the communications center operation course at The Southeastern Signal School, Fort Gordon, Ga.

During the eight-week course, Geddes was trained to receive, process and relay messages by various means of communication.

The 22-year-old soldier entered the Army in December, 1960, and completed basic combat training at Fort Ord, California.

He is a 1956 graduate of Jefferson Union High School and a 1960 graduate of San Francisco State College.

Jeffrey To Transfer To Shell In Detroit

R. E. Jeffrey of 11 Hillside avenue has been transferred by Shell Oil Company and will move soon to Detroit with his wife, Louise.

Jeffrey, who has been Shell's product application department manager here since 1955, will become resident assistant manager for the firm's head office products application department.

He was born in Oakland and attended Stanford University where he was awarded an A.B. in engineering in 1934 and a degree of mechanical engineer in 1937.

He began his career with Shell in 1937 as research engineer in the motor laboratory of the firm's Martinez refinery.

Pacific Men Aboard Aircraft Carrier

Hard-hitting, fast-moving, and far-ranging, the attack aircraft carrier is the Navy's chief weapon for controlling the seas.

Serving aboard the USS Lexington, an attack aircraft carrier operating out of San Diego, are Pacifica men Charles H. Sherer, airman apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Sherer of 693 Lockhaven; John P. Geary, airman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Geary of 1072 Rosita road; Wilfred C. Hesketh, fireman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred C. Hesketh of 327 Heathcliff drive; and Buckley A. Hyers, airman apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Hyers of 495 Kahalo avenue.

DC Housewife Lauds Fire, Police Forces

A Daly City housewife has written a letter to the City Council commending the "efficient and courteous" service of the Daly City Fire and Police Departments, who assisted her husband during a recent hemorrhage attack.

Mrs. G. W. Hanson, 411 San Diego avenue, said in her letter that she and her husband were very grateful to both departments for the service and assistance they gave to her husband on the evening of July 2 in controlling the nasal hemorrhage.

"It is with gratification that we live in a city whose emergency service is so efficient and courteous," the letter concluded.

There are 1376 newspapers and periodicals published in California.

TV and Radio

By MONA BAKER

Another significant milestone in the field of international television will be reached when KPIX and KQED telecast the second program in the outstanding documentary series produced by Intertel, production agency made up of four English-speaking countries — United States, England, Canada and Australia.

Titled "The Heartbeat of France," the program will present a picture of France today, highlighting subjects all the way from life in a shanty-town of 500 Algerian families to what goes on behind the scenes at Christian Dior.

The first program, "The Quiet War," was an outstanding production. But what is truly unique about the series is that Intertel is the world's first international television production agency. Since each program will be telecast in all four nations, the potential audience is 281,000,000 English-speaking people.

What a vital force for peace television can be if utilized to bring understanding between nations by presenting an authentic picture of the way people live in other lands. Since the National Educational TV and Radio Center is co-operating with Westinghouse in presenting the program, there will be double showings in the Bay Area (KQED, July 19, 9:30 p.m., and KPIX, July 20, 10 p.m.).

Sifting through the week's batch of releases bringing information about coming fall programs, we discovered one that should prove a noteworthy addition. Starting September 16, NBC will present a Saturday news program slanted directly to high school and junior high school students. The aim of the program, according to producer Heinemann, is to "accent the how and why of week's news events in order to give the 20 to 25 million students of pre-college age a better understanding of national and world affairs."

We think the program idea is excellent but to be really effective the program should be given as a weekly class assignment. We do hope NBC will alert schools with advance schedules.

COMING PROGRAMS: For the fourth consecutive year, KTVU cameras will tour the annual Jack London Art Festival, one of Northern California's major art shows, on July 30, 1 to 2 p.m.

Over KPIX (July 23, 12 noon) colorcast of "The Conquest of Everest" narrated by Sir Edmund Hillary relating the fascinating story of the famous mountain climbing expedition.

Scheduled for Tuesday, July 25, 10 p.m., over KRON-TV, another rebroadcast of NBC-TV "Purex Specials," titled "The Trapped Housewife."

"Alimony in California" will be the subject under discussion on the "Herb Caen Show" on July 23 at 2 p.m., with a repeat telecast of the same show the following Sunday at 11 p.m. over KGO-TV.

Sisterhood Is Busy With Rummage Drive

Judea Continues Through Summer

Late Sabbath Eve Services are held each Friday evening at 8:30 p.m. at the Westlake Temple House, 95 South Mayfair avenue. During the vacation of Rabbi Robert W. San Diego's Old Town is reported by the National Automobile Club to surround an early Spanish plaza and to be the site of many historical landmarks, including an old adobe chapel, first California jail, first county school.

Sharon Granger Is Married To Bob Davidson

The Church of the Good Shepherd in Pacifica was the scene of a recent military wedding that united Sharon Granger, of 57 Long View drive, Daly City, and Lance Corporal Robert C. Davidson of Albuquerque, N.M.

Following the ceremony the couple passed through the traditional arch of swords formed by members of the Marine Detachment aboard the USS ORISKANY which is currently in the Hunter's Point Naval Shipyard. A reception for family and friends was held at the home of the bride's parents.

After a honeymoon trip to Santa Cruz and Albuquerque the couple will reside in San Francisco until the departure of the USS ORISKANY to San Diego in early September.

Sharon is the daughter of Chief Fire Control Technician and Mrs. Robert L. Granger of 57 Long View drive. Chief Granger is currently on duty at the Daly City Navy Recruiting Station.

Conifers Have Touch Of Forest About 'Em

Coniferous or cone-bearing evergreens differ from so many wild plants in that their native charm carries over into the formal garden setting. Having them at hand is like having a corner of the forest for your very own.

Pines especially have a touch of wilderness about them, and even when tubbed for use in the minimum garden, they exude it. If you're an outdoorsman, try growing Pines this way and see what we mean.

The California Association of Nurserymen has issued the following list of Pines that are available for growing in tubs. They might include some surprises for gardeners who hadn't realized that many foreign giants can be kept to tub size for years and years.

A case in point is the Japanese Black Pine, which Japanese gardeners have grown in Bonsai plantings for centuries. You see pictures of gnarled old specimens that have outlived the men who planted them by many years. Such skill is beyond the range of most of us, but there's nothing to prevent our tubbing a young Black Pine and enjoying its reduced rate of growth for many years. Mugho Pine on the other hand is an obvious choice for tubs because of its naturally dwarf habit. A squat, rotund Pine, its Alpine freshness makes it a top choice. Out of a tub, it is excellent in the patio border.

The Shore Pine is a rugged-looking specimen that needs some help from the gardener if it is to attain the twisted, picturesque form of its native habitat. A few wires to help shape it will do what coastal winds do naturally. Left to its own, it will grow in a pyramidal pattern.

The fourth Pine recommended is Scotch Pine, a full and dense conifer that sports

100 Girl Scouts Enjoy Outing At Crystal Springs

Approximately 100 Girl Scouts from Daly City, Colma, San Bruno, Pacifica, Millbrae, and South San Francisco this week are taking a five-mile hike to "paradise"—that is, property belonging to the California Water Service Department at Crystal Springs in San Bruno—beautiful, wooded private property that still retains all the primitive qualities of nature just as the Indians first saw it in early California.

The Intermediate Girl Scouts of the third camping session, July 17-21, are admiring the deeply wooded lanes, the flowers and fauna of the region. The girls have opportunities to see the wild deer, rabbits, quails, and the many varieties of birds.

The Girl Scouts were transported in groups of 50 girls at a time, by Greyhound bus to the hiking grounds. One group went on Wednesday, the other on last Thursday. The day was spent on this adventure type of primitive hiking. A nosebag lunch was held at noon. The group returned to base camp at Junipero Serra Park in San Bruno at 2:30 p.m.

Camp Director for this session is Mrs. Mickie Magnusson.

Don't Overlook Summer Garden

Summer has a way of sneaking up on the gardener. Unlike spring, which is long awaited and long planned for, summer is suddenly here. Which explains, no doubt, why so many gardens are often more colorful in spring than they are now.

If the season caught you napping, start changing things right now while you're thinking about it. By planting a few shrubs and perennials this month, you will have the basic elements of a colorful border next summer, and at the proper time you can add whatever annuals are needed to fill it all in. Need we add that if a plant is bought in bloom, it will give color this summer, too.

Start by mapping your plan of attack. Plot areas of sun and shade. Indicate permanent shrubs and any areas of spring bloom that shouldn't be hidden. Then visit a neighborhood member of the California Association of Nurserymen and let him help you fill in the map.

He will probably start you off with some basic perennials — many of which can be found in gallon nursery cans already in bloom or ready to bloom. Yellow and white Marguerites are a logical starting point. In the middle border, they can act as a background for lower growing perennials and as a foreground for taller Delphiniums. A foreground of blue perennials Asters backed by yellow Marguerites and backed again by blue Delphinium is something to see.

Tall fire brands of the Red Hot Poker plant fit well into such a border. They are perfect contrast to Delphinium and so, too, are the flat yellow heads of Fernleaf Yarrow. There are other nice color combinations for the summer border, also. Try blending pink perennials Asters with white and yellow Marguerites, topped by glowing heads of tall pink Phlox and the white Shasta Daisy. Makes a nice picture, doesn't it?

There's a place for Roses, too, especially the bloom-crazy floribundas and grandifloras, and, as mentioned above, annuals can be added at the appropriate time. Since you'll get bloom from them this summer, the time would seem appropriate now.

Princess Flower Has Purple Blooms

You don't need a second look to know why Pleroma splendens is called the Princess Flower. With those royal purple blooms, it just couldn't be anything less majestic; and moreover, the shrub has an overall delicate, fresh quality that is both young and feminine.

This tender shrub is marginal in areas where hard winter frost and high summer temperature prevail, but it's worth trying there just the same. Given a sheltered, north exposure and plenty of moisture, it can often buck the elements to put on its normally exotic show of summer and fall color. You'll find it definitely worth any effort.

Princess Flower, which comes our way from Brazil, is at its best in gardens not too far distant from the coast and does equally well in northern or southern California. Given an east exposure in such areas, where it gets sun at least half a day, it will be completely happy. Avoid too much shade, however.

The dominating impression that one gets from the showy shrub is one of richness. The deep purple blooms, up to three inches across, the velvet texture of the leaves and the reddish tinge of foliage and stem are all of the richest possible hue.

Princess Flower is a tall shrub to eight or ten feet of loose open habit that tends to be top heavy. According to the California Association of Nurserymen, it is best grown against a wall where it gets some protection from the excesses of weather. Anchor it, if possible, to a strong stake or trellis.

It is only happy with adequate moisture during the summer, so keep it in where frequent watering is routine. A rich, porous soil to which plenty of leaf mold has been added at planting time is the best.

If you live inland, plant it where it can get filtered sun; coastal areas, full sun. An early spring pruning will help to discourage legginess, and is just about all the special care you need to consider.

Big Advantages To Potted Plants

The busy housewife and the time-pressed commuter turn naturally to container grown plants for their garden diversion. Such practice permits them to have full garden enjoyment with a minimum of time and effort.

Are these the only reasons for growing color in containers, however? The California Association of Nurserymen asks that question and answers in the negative without delay. Even the most inveterate gardener enjoys his garden of tubs and pots. He likes the intimate, close-in relationship with plants and the chance to keep moving new color to the front when old color begins to fade.

If such appeals to you, check in at the local nursery and get yourself a few containers full of color. Remember that whatever blooms in a nursery can also bloom in a pot or tub on your deck or patio.

Chrysanthemums, for instance, are ideal container plants and none can beat them for color. Several pots in a long planter box are all you need to make your outdoor living area a happier place. When the bloom is faded, plant them in the garden and replace them in the planter with more Chrysanthemums in bloom.

Every nurseryman has pots full of blooming Geraniums and Pelargoniums, unless he's sold out. And more durable, faithful pot plants there never were. Water is all they ask — much more than you'd give them in the ground — and a monthly meal of complete plant food will help to increase the crop of blooms.

Catholic Social Serv. Picnic Lunch, Swim

Sisterhood Plans Snack, Card Party

Stafa, Marguerites Make Good Match

To find the right match for a favorite garden plant is to make a good thing even better. And the longer one gardens, the more he appreciates this simple fact.

Consider, for instance, Marguerites — specifically yellow Marguerites, which are everybody's favorite. By themselves these everblooming beauties are full of appeal; but with the added attraction of the blue perennial Aster, Wonder of Stafa, they are real knockouts.

These two prolific color bearers are really a match for each other. Like Marguerite, Wonder of Stafa is almost always in bloom, or seems that way; and the daisylike blooms are a blue carbon copy of the familiar yellow flowers we all know so well.

If you would add this colorful combination to your garden, choose a sunny spot and preferably one large enough to hold several plants. Both these shrubs are of easy culture though Marguerites are probably more drought resistant. Soil need not be enriched at planting time unless it is especially barren, and supplemental feeding is unnecessary. Both plants will respond to pruning, however, and should be cut back on occasion to keep growth compact.

Wonder of Stafa is the most compact of the two and should be planted up front if and when two rows are planted.

Another blue, daisylike perennial offered by California Association of Nurserymen members is Felcia — often called the Blue Marguerite. It is a more loosely formed plant than Wonder of Stafa and somewhat less profuse in bloom. The yellow-centered blue flowers, however, have great appeal and where Marguerites are planted in a raised bed, a foreground of this Blue Marguerite will sprawl attractively over the edge. This alone would make it worth your planting.

GI Insurance For Certain Disabled Vets

Veterans released from active service on or after April 25, 1951, under other than dishonorable conditions, and who have a service-connected disability may apply for "nonparticipating" GI life insurance, San Mateo County Veterans' Service Officer Floyd D. Granger pointed out today.

Generally, application must be made within one year from the date the Veterans Administration finds the veteran's disability to be service-connected. If the veteran is shown to have been mentally incompetent during any part of the one-year period, application may be filed within one year after a guardian is appointed or the removal of such disability, whichever is the earlier date.

Veterans must be in good health except for the service-connected disabilities. They may apply either for convertible five-year term plan insurance, or for any of the permanent plans to which the condition of their health may entitle them.

If they are totally disabled, however, they are not eligible for any of the three endowment plans but may be eligible for either term insurance or one of the three remaining permanent plans — ordinary life, 20-pay life, or 30-pay life insurance.

Under certain conditions, service-disabled veterans' insurance may be payable to the widow, widower, child or parent where a veteran — otherwise qualified — did not apply for the insurance and is shown to have been mentally incompetent from a service-connected disability and to have remained so until death; if the death occurred before appointment of a guardian or within one year after appointment of the guardian.

NDGW El Carmelo Parlor Installs 61-62 Officers

The newly elected officers of El Carmelo Parlor No. 181 Native Daughters of the Golden West were installed recently by Deputy Grand President Rena LoReaux of San Bruno Parlor No. 246 and her installing team.

The following officers were installed for the year 1961-62: president, Stella O'Connor; past president, Ida Meri; first vice president, Dorothy Mackintosh; second vice president, Helena Lewerenz; third vice president, Stella Arcimas; recording secretary, Christine Hulme; financial secretary, Leonor Gray; treasurer, Julia Romer; marshal, Beatrice Galvin; trustees: Anne Biggio, Jane Cuneo, and Frances Harris; inside sentinel, Catherine Michelsen; outside sentinel, June Hill; organist, Madeleine Koskela.

The theme of the evening was "Wheels of Progress and Friendship" and at each station was a wheel with yellow spokes, the rim and hub of red and white carnations, respectively; also at the various stations was a covered wagon, a cart, an early model automobile and a jet plane. As the president was escorted to her station, "Wagon Wheels" was sung by Mrs. Leonor Gray, followed by the formation of a moving wheel by the escort team under the direction of Mrs. Ellen Pieri.

Upon assuming her office the president stated that "without friendship it is difficult to progress. El Carmelo Parlor has progressed for 51 years; this city where we meet, Daly City, is celebrating its 50th birthday this year; it has progressed."

Past grand presidents Mae Himes Noonan and Evelyn I. Carlson were present and congratulated the newly installed officers. Supervising District

WITNESSES NEED 50,000 ROOMS FOR SF CONFAB

"The biggest house-to-house hunt for rooms in the history of San Francisco was begun by Jehovah's Witnesses from 40 Bay Area congregations, including Daly City Congregation," according to H. E. Casperson, local presiding minister of the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society.

From August 29 to September 3 the Witnesses are holding their gathering at Candlestick Park, where more than 50,000 are expected to attend the six-day "United Worshipers" District Assembly.

Casperson emphasized that all authorized workers will carry credentials from the Watchtower Society, and it is suggested that householders see the identification cards before admitting workers into their homes.

TN High Teacher In New SFSC Class

Roland Boldt, Terra Nova High School instructor, presently is enrolled in a unique, workshop program at San Francisco State College.

The program is designed to encourage students to enter retail and office careers by first allowing their teachers to experience at first hand the factors surrounding such vocational pursuits.

Dr. John Linn, associate professor of business, announced that 28 Northern California high school teachers and counselors are enrolled this summer and already have been placed on various jobs with business firms in the Bay Area.

Abelia Has Looks, Good Summer Bloom

If glossy good looks and bright summer bloom are to your liking, Glossy Abelia will be, too. Most important, it is showiest when the garden needs it most.

Abelia is an evergreen, maintaining a handsome front whether you look after it or let it go. It stands drought, windstorm or salt spray and always looks as though it just stepped out of a shower.

The favorite Abelia to be found in California Association of Nurserymen showyards is Glossy Abelia, a medium sized shrub often seen in foundation plantings. Glossy Abelia has bronze-green foliage and masses of tubular pinkish-white blooms that start early in summer and last into fall.

Left to its own, the Glossy Abelia will grow to six feet or more—an informal shrub with arching branches. Too often it is sheared like a Privet into a round ball of a shrub with subsequent loss of charm. Better practice would be an annual thinning out of branches to keep the form open and graceful. There is no objection to the shearing, however, if you plant it as a hedge.

Pink Abelia is similar, though somewhat smaller all around. It has a naturally open habit that should be encouraged and summer-long blooms of lavender-pink.

The most exciting addition to the Abelia family is the recently developed Prostrate White Abelia. Similar in leaf and flower to Glossy Abelia, it is an ideal choice for pathways and banks that need a good ground cover.

Abelias are not entirely indifferent to soil conditions, though any moderately good garden soil will do. The one thing they don't want is a poorly drained spot. Just avoid this obvious shortcoming and you'll have no trouble.

Full sun is not too much along the coast, though part shade is a happier choice. Inland, part shade is mandatory. Water will not be welcome, but as mentioned above, it's something these durable shrubs can get along with well and do without.

For the mechanically minded kids there will be electronics and industrial exhibits, armed forces exhibits with real rockets and guns and tanks. The huge County Building, a virtual fairyland of color and exciting exhibits, will draw the youngsters by the thousands.

The State Fair offers a big day for kids, be they newspaper carriers who will try their throwing skill with folded newspapers or just boys and girls who come to the big 12-day show with their parents.

Plane Mechanic Will Leave Job For Ministry

Clifford W. Kile, of 415 Westmoor avenue, Westlake, will leave his job at United Airlines this week, to study for the ministry. At the age of 42, aviation mechanic Kile will move his family to Kensett, Iowa, to become the pastor of Trinity Evangelical United Brethren Church, while continuing his studies at Wartburg College, and preparing for ordination.

The Rev. Mr. Kile, already a licensed minister in the California Conference of the Evangelical United Brethren Church, will deliver the morning sermon at Seacrest Community Church at 11 a.m., this Sunday morning, July 23, at the invitation of Pastor Clark Robb. Following the morning service, the congregation will gather for a "send-off" dinner, with the Kile family as honored guests. They will begin the cross-country trek by auto this Saturday morning.

Kile, a native of Pennsylvania, came to San Francisco some eight years ago to work for United Air Lines. It was during the ministry of the Rev. Fred L. Panthorpe, former Seacrest Church pastor, that he felt called into the ministry.

In addition to his United Air Lines job on the swing shift, the future minister attended San Francisco State College, taking a full course of studies. Mrs. Kile was employed by the Pacific Fire Rating Bureau.

Kile will be accompanied to Iowa by his wife, and their younger daughter, Patsy, a fifth-grader. Another, Dale, will reside in Daly City with her paternal grandmother to complete her senior year at Westmoor High School.

VA WILL PAY $6,800,000 TO AREA VETS

Payment of the $6,800,000 special G.I. insurance dividend to some 152,000 Northern California veterans, which was started late in June, is expected to be completed by early August, Glen Corbitt, manager of the San Francisco VA Regional Office reported today.

President Kennedy, on April 21, 1961, announced that the Veterans Administration would pay a special dividend. Payment of the dividend was recommended by John S. Gleason, Jr., Administrator of Veterans Affairs, upon completion of an actuarial study ordered by the President early last February.

Corbitt said the VA plans to finish its dividend processing work on veterans' accounts at VA insurance offices by July 31, and that the last of the checks would be mailed from Treasury disbursing offices during the first few days in August.

Special dividend payments will be made to some 4,500,000 World War II veterans holding National Service Life Insurance (NSLI) policies, and to approximately 280,000 World War I veterans who have U. S. Government Life Insurance (USGLI) policies.

Of the $230,000,000 total dividend, about $193,000,000 will be paid on NSLI policies and approximately $37,000,000 on USGLI policies.

Corbitt said veterans do not have to apply to VA for their dividends. He explained that payments would be made automatically, and that inquiries from veterans would only serve to divert personnel from the dividend project, and could result in delayed payments.

The dividend distribution now under way is the second to be paid by VA during 1961.

Corbitt said that both the regular and the special dividends are primarily a refund to the veteran-policyholders of part of their premium payments. He pointed out that the refunds are made possible principally because the death rate among policyholders continues to be much lower than the rates upon which the premiums were established by law.

It's News To Vets

Questions and Answers

Q—Who administers the national cemeteries and to whom do burial applications go?

A—These are administered by the Army and Department of the Interior, through superintendents of the national cemeteries. Although applications must go to the superintendent of the cemetery in which burial is desired, any VA office will provide information and other assistance in filing request applications for the burial of veterans and their eligible dependents.

Q—When can I expect to receive the "special" GI insurance dividend from VA?

A—The VA began payment of the "special" dividend June 26, and all policyholders should receive their checks by July 31.

Q—I am a World War II veteran, have used my full GI loan guaranty to buy a house some time ago, but my family has increased and I need to add a room. Is it true that I may be eligible for a VA guaranteed supplemental loan for this purpose?

A—Yes, providing the holder of the present mortgage is willing to make the supplemental loan. Veterans of World War II and the Korean Conflict may be eligible for a VA guaranteed supplemental loan for alterations, repairs and improvements necessary for the protection of their property or to substantially improve the livability or utility of the property.

Q—I am the dependent mother of a deceased World War II veteran, but have been denied payments from the VA as a result of his death. I know other mothers that are drawing death dependency allowances because of their veteran son's death. Why am I ineligible?

A—Parents may be eligible for death compensation if their veteran son's death was a result of a service-incurred injury or illness. Only widows and children of the deceased veteran are eligible if the veteran's death was not the result of service-connected injury or illness.

Gardener's Checklist

By the California Association of Nurserymen

1. Cut back the faded foliage of spring blooming bulbs. Divide the bulbs if clumps seem crowded.
2. After applying peat moss, be sure to give it a thorough soaking. Dry peat will extract moisture from the soil.
3. Heat-loving annuals such as Celosia, Zinnias, Dwarf Dahlias can be set out now for bloom in a few short weeks.
4. Gladioli are better dug than left in the ground. As early blooming Gladioli die off, lift the corms, dust them with insecticide and store them in a cool, dry place.
5. Keep Ivy from invading your flower beds by cutting it back severely. Don't worry about cutting it to much. It's almost impossible.

WHAT'S DOING

T. P. Coyne, your Telephone Manager in Daly City

Is this the world's most popular machine? You'd think so, judging by the number of phone calls it gets—more than 100,000 daily!

It's called an Audichron. Just dial "time service" and it will give you the correct time every ten seconds, of every minute, of every hour. In just one day, this adds up to 8640 announcements. Best of all, this remarkable machine never gets tired.

The Audichron is completely automatic.

It's regularly checked with Naval Observatory Time for accuracy. Should it stop operating for any reason, there's a standby machine ready to take over immediately.

Providing the "time-service" is another way telephone people work constantly to make your telephone more valuable to you.

D & S LUMBER TAKES 1ST
PLAYOFF GAME, 6-5, IN
DALY CITY REC BASEBALL

D & S Lumber won the first Junior League playoff contest, 6-5, over OLM Gaels in a rugged, thrilling duel to highlight action in the Daly City Recreation-sponsored baseball league over the weekend.

The Junior Division ended in a three-way tie with Daly City Drugs, D & S Lumber and the OLM Gaels ending the season with 9-2 win-loss records. DC Drugs drew a bye when team coaches drew lots for the playoffs.

In the bottom of the first, OLM drew first blood as Ron Bell scored on Dave Williams' single, but in the top of the third D & S came back to take a 5-1 advantage on a series of OLM errors and a single by Bill Waite.

Williams hit a tremendous triple in the bottom of the third and drove in three more OLM runs. Then Dave Pigot tied up the contest with a single, scoring Don Scannell.

The dynamic top of the seventh proved the championship for D & S Lumber when Dan Payette walked with one out, stole second and third bases.

Arnold Ertola then walked and stole second. Nick Kernich came to the plate and sacrificed Payette home for the winning run, and raced to third base on Williams' throwing error. On the play, Ertola was thrown out at the plate, for the second out, and then Kernich tried to steal home.

In a terrific collision at the plate, pitcher Bob Buccini of the Gaels put Kernich out, but Buccini was forced to leave the contest due to injuries received.

In the bottom of the seventh, pitcher Joaquin Andrade kept the Gaels intact for the victory. The championship contest will be played August 22 at Marchbanks Park, 1:30 p.m., between D & S Lumber and the Daly City Drugs.

Westmoor Division
Totals Midgets took a strong hold on second place this week in a wild game that saw Totos take the lead, lose it, then come back. They defeated the Misracks Mustangs, 17-10. Carper, Streeter and Klippel came through with timely performances.

Art Colvin's BYA racked the Holy Angels Lions out of contention with a 4-1 victory. This gave the Lions a 4 and 3 record. Had they won, they would have been tied with Totos with a 5 and 2 record for second place. Ken Gonzales and Ronnie Smith did the damage to score the winning runs that edged the Lions out.

The PAL Yankees go for a perfect record on July 18 against the Lions. Their 7 and 0 record clinches first place.

Jefferson Division
League-leading Hughes Texaco took it on the chin this week as Visitation nailed them, 7-3. Mike Washower of Visitation had 3 for 3. Hero of the week honors go to the whole Visitation team for their upset.

The BYA Tigers gave the BYA Bullets a trip down nightmare alley this week with a 10-4 trouncing. Later in the week the PAL Redsox turned the lights on in nightmare alley. Bobby Nolan allowed the nightmare alley boys only one hit as his team defeated them, 3-0. Hughes Texaco plays Parkmerced in an effort to clinch first place.

It's SPARE TIME

at Westlake Bowl

By JIM GREALISH

Trudy Greene is her name, and after a thrilling "come-from-behind" finish, she is the new Westlake Bowl Ladies' League Champion.

In the final roll-off, she maintained a scratch average of 175 for eight games to beat Barbara Hicks for the title by only three Petersen Points. By so doing, she won $60 in cash, a personal trophy and possession of the perpetual trophy for one year. For placing second, Barbara won $40 while Bonnie Greer took home $26 third place and Doris Cunningham $20 for placing fourth.

Phil Hargrove II, bowling for the Lake Merced Nursery team, set the pace for his father, uncle and grandfather, who are also members of the team, by shooting a 234 game and 602 series in the Monday evening 805 Scratch League.

With an amazing string of seven consecutive strikes, Helen Vincent set the pace in the new Monday Mixed Fours League by registering a 258 game, although she didn't quite make the magic 600 series mark.

Eight persons were on hand last week for the first meeting of the bowling class of the Physically Handicapped Indoor Sports Association. This is scheduled to become a weekly affair at Westlake and physically handicapped persons who are interested may obtain further information by calling Mrs. Miggs Jacobs, MO 4-6783.

Monday, July 24, is Powder Puff Day. At 1:15 p.m., the lady bowlers of the area will be on hand to compete in one of the two divisions, handicap and scratch. Winners of the first July Powder Puff Derby were June Tarezy with 621 in the handicap group and Mae Morales with 528 scratch. Ruth Tobin's 613 took second place among the handicappers and Helen Vincent rolled an even 500 for second scratch spot.

The PAL Bowling Tournament has already topped the $2,000 mark with the closing date still almost three weeks away. Rowena Nichols took over leadership in the Ladies' Division with a 639 total to pass Marge Brown by seven pins. Her 621 scratch total for three games gave her the lead for the special scratch, series prize. Bill Joslin, with 727, continues to lead the men's division. Over the weekend, groups were on hand from Schillings Spices, thanks to Bonnie and Dick Birkett, San Francisco Chinese Bowling Club, Redwood Bowl and Bagdad Bowl. Last week was PAL League Week with special prizes for league bowlers.

Another junior bowler graduated to the adult leagues with a bang as Pat Marks bowled a tremendous 262 game last Sunday night in the Westlake Wedlocks League. Bowling with her at the time were a very proud mother and father. Norma and Angelo Baldelli, along with daughter Lee, have really made an impression in the Family Doubles Tournament, which ends July 30. Of the eight prize divisions for various family combinations, these three members of the "Bowling Baldellis" hold the lead in the Mother and Daughter Division with 1,170, the Father and Daughter group with 1,231, and lead all the Husbands and Wives with 1,279.

With almost 100 entries to date, the Second Annual Junior House Championship is well on its way. Steve Hargrove leads the Singles Division with 651 while Joanne and Pete Poljat hold the Doubles Division lead with 1,227.

Next Sunday morning will find 100 Kaiser-Permanente employees holding their annual bowling tournament here at Westlake.

CARDS TAKE 2ND
IN PENINSULA RACE

Larry Black hit a home run in the seventh inning but was called out for failing to touch first base as his PAL Cardinals of Daly City lost a 6-5 contest to St. Paul in the Peninsula Little League recently.

The Cardinals came back to stop the PAL Constables, 11-8, in a come-from-behind victory over the weekend.

The split put the Cardinals in second place in the Peninsula Midget League standings with a 3-1 record.

In the 6-5 defeat, Cardinal hitters Ron La Rosa had two for four and Lonnie Alfano cracked a bases-loaded single with two outs to close the score to 6-5.

The Cards, behind 8-5 against the Constables, rallied for three runs in the sixth inning as La Rosa hit a double with the bags loaded. Nick Kosturos also doubled to drive in the winning runs in the seventh.

La Rosa had four for four, with five runs batted in during the victory.

The Cards also competed last week in the South San Francisco Orange Invitational Tournament, winning two games, 19-6 over the Buri Buri Beetles and 11-3 past the PAL Private Eyes.

Pitcher Lonnie Alfano worked six innings against the Private Eyes, allowing three hits, fanning 10, and walking only two.
